Answer key: A Muslim's Right on His Brother

For Teacher

Islamic Education · Grade 9 (Non-Arabic speakers) · A Revelation from the Lord of the Worlds · Textbook V2 p.232

Bronze: 1) praying for the one who sneezes | 2) «Yarhamuk Allah» | 3) obligatory | 4) عُده ('Iyadah) ← visiting the sick · تشميت (Tashmit) ← responding to a sneeze | 5) ✓ · ✗

Silver: 1) To strengthen love and bonds among Muslims | 2) When he asks, give him honest advice | 3) Greeting with salam spreads love; starting it is sunnah and returning it is obligatory. | 4) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: Spread greetings. · Share in others' joys and sorrows.

Gold: 1) Call or visit with my family, pray for him and help with lessons | 2) Call or visit, pray for him and help with lessons | 3) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: Accepting invitations strengthens ties; a wedding invitation should be accepted unless there is an excuse, but not if it contains wrongdoing. | 4) A visitor is «in the harvest of Paradise» until he returns....

Diamond: 1) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: E.g. visiting the sick, accepting invitations, responding to sneezing. | 2) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: Spread greetings. · Share in others' joys and sorrows. | 3) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: I greet my classmates first. · I visit or call a sick classmate. · I say «Yarhamuk Allah» to someone who sneezes and praises Allah.

People of Determination: 1) Comforting him, praying for him and not staying long | 2) six | 3) ✓ · ✗ | 4) I greet my classmates first. · I visit or call a sick classmate.

Group work: Bronze: Greeting with salam spreads love; starting it is sunnah and returning it is obligatory. · Silver: Accepting invitations strengthens ties; a wedding invitation should be accepted unless there is an excuse, but not if it contains wrongdoing. · Gold: Advising whoever asks, and responding to a sneezer who praises Allah with «Yarhamuk Allah», who replies «Yahdikum Allah wa yuslih balakum». · Diamond: Visiting the sick comforts and cheers them; following a funeral has great reward and reminds us of the Hereafter.