Answer key: Exchanging Advice in Islam (Tanasuh)

For Teacher

Islamic Education · Grade 9 (Non-Arabic speakers) · He Creates That Which You Know Not · Textbook V1 p.45

Bronze: 1) Privacy, gentleness and choosing the right time | 2) a trustworthy adviser | 3) Sincerity, knowledge and acting on his advice | 4) Nasihah ← sincere advice | 5) ✓ · ✗

Silver: 1) It protects society from evil and corruption | 2) It protects dignity, so it is more likely to be accepted | 3) Advice means wanting good for the one advised; Ash-Shafi'i said: «Advise me when I am alone...» | 4) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: Advise privately and gently. · Accept advice with humility.

Gold: 1) Speak to him alone, kindly, at a good time, reminding him of prayer's virtue | 2) Leading by example is stronger; saying one thing and doing another weakens trust | 3) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: Its conditions: sincerity, knowledge of the matter, privacy, wisdom and gentleness, and the right time. | 4) Be sincere, advise privately, speak gently, know what you're talking about and choose the right time. Ash-Shafi'i said advising in public is exposing....

Diamond: 1) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: Consider privacy, kindness, timing and evidence. | 2) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: Advise privately and gently. · Accept advice with humility. | 3) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: I advise a classmate privately and gently. · I accept advice openly. · I choose the right time to advise.

People of Determination: 1) exchanging sincere advice and wanting good for others | 2) a trustworthy adviser | 3) ✓ · ✗ | 4) I advise a classmate privately and gently. · I accept advice openly.

Group work: Bronze: Advice means wanting good for the one advised; Ash-Shafi'i said: «Advise me when I am alone...» · Silver: Its conditions: sincerity, knowledge of the matter, privacy, wisdom and gentleness, and the right time. · Gold: The prophets were advisers: Nuh said «I advise you», and Hud said «I am a trustworthy adviser to you». · Diamond: Its benefits: pleasing Allah, spreading love, correcting mistakes and improving society.