Answer key: Permissible and Forbidden Foods and Drinks

For Teacher

Islamic Education · Grade 9 (Non-Arabic speakers) · Allah Loves Those Who Act Justly · Textbook V1 p.145

Bronze: 1) every bird with talons | 2) carrion, flowing blood and pork | 3) cutting the windpipe and gullet while mentioning Allah's name | 4) Tayyibat ← good, lawful things · Tadhkiyah ← lawful slaughter | 5) ✓ · ✗

Silver: 1) Preserving life comes first, and Islam is a religion of ease | 2) Necessity permits the forbidden to the extent needed | 3) Food and drink are lawful by default: «O people, eat of what is on earth, lawful and good», including plants, sea creatures and properly slaughtered animals. | 4) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: Good things are lawful; harmful things are forbidden. · Necessity allows what is needed, no more.

Gold: 1) Look for an approved «halal» mark or ask, and leave it if unsure | 2) Check for an approved halal certificate; if none, leave it | 3) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: Forbidden: carrion, flowing blood, pork, what is dedicated to other than Allah, alcohol and every intoxicant or drug, and harmful things like poisons. | 4) Dead animals, blood, pork, what is slaughtered for other than Allah (2:173), predators with fangs and birds with talons....

Diamond: 1) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: The default for food is permissibility unless evidence forbids it; check the ingredients. | 2) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: Good things are lawful; harmful things are forbidden. · Necessity allows what is needed, no more. | 3) Open answers are accepted when supported by evidence; guide: I check the halal mark when buying. · I avoid anything that harms my body. · I say Allah's name before eating.

People of Determination: 1) lawful | 2) permissible | 3) ✓ · ✗ | 4) I check the halal mark when buying. · I avoid anything that harms my body.

Group work: Bronze: Food and drink are lawful by default: «O people, eat of what is on earth, lawful and good», including plants, sea creatures and properly slaughtered animals. · Silver: Forbidden: carrion, flowing blood, pork, what is dedicated to other than Allah, alcohol and every intoxicant or drug, and harmful things like poisons. · Gold: Forbidden animals include every predator with fangs and every bird with talons. · Diamond: Lawful slaughter: cutting the throat, gullet and jugular veins while saying Allah's name, or wounding an animal that cannot be caught, or hunting with its conditions.