💡 Main ideas

1. Obligatory (fard/wajib): firmly required; the doer is rewarded and the one who leaves it is punished, like the five prayers. It is either individual or communal.
2. Recommended (sunnah): requested but not firmly; the doer is rewarded, the one who leaves it is not punished, like the miswak and Duha.
3. Permissible (mubah): the person may do it or leave it, like eating good food and trading.
4. Disliked (makruh): requested to leave, not firmly; whoever leaves it is rewarded. Forbidden (haram): firmly required to leave, like lying and stealing.
