📘 Key words

Taqlid a'ma	blind imitation

💡 Main ideas

1. Taqlid means following someone in speech, action or belief; without evidence or awareness it is blind imitation.
2. The Qur'an condemns it: «When told to follow what Allah has revealed, they say: Rather, we follow what we found our fathers doing.»
3. Causes: weak personality and lack of self-confidence, ignorance of religion, emptiness and no goals, and fascination with celebrities.
4. Dangers: losing one's identity, a culture of consumerism and the death of creativity. The cure: awareness, self-confidence and a good role model: «Do not be an imma'ah.»

✅ Lessons we take

1. Popularity doesn't make something right.
2. Think before you follow.
