Answer key: The Essence of Religion Is Sincere Advice

Islamic Education · Grade 9 (Non-Arabic speakers) · Unit: Proclaim unto Mankind the Pilgrimage · Textbook V1 p.87

For: Teacher

Bronze: 1) Tamīm ad-Dārī · Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim. 2) Naṣīḥah → wanting good for others sincerely; A'immat al-Muslimīn → leaders and scholars; 'Āmmatihim → ordinary Muslims; Ghish → showing good while hiding harm. 3) · النَّصيحَةُ · كِتابِهِ · رَسولِهِ · الْمُسْلِمينَ · عامَّتِهِمْ.

Silver: 1) The Prophet ﷺ made advice the religion itself: it is its pillar, and the religion of a deceiver is not upright. 2) Allah · His Book · His Messenger · the leaders · ordinary Muslims. 3) ✓ · ✗ (advice is for everyone) · ✓.

Gold: 1) e.g. Advice is the pillar of the religion (from «الدين النصيحة»); it covers our relationship with Allah and people (from the list of areas). 2) Individual: correcting mistakes, stronger faith, people's love. Society: unity, spread of good, less deception. 3) The short statement creates interest and the explanation fixes the meaning; their question shows good manners in learning.

Diamond: 1) Disagree: advice should be private and gentle; public correction embarrasses and may push people away from the truth. 2) Personal answers accepted if practical, specific and in the right area. 3) Should show sincerity, privacy, kindness and checking official sources.

POD sheet: 1) advice. 2) ✓ first and third. 3) Personal answer.

Group work: Bronze: making the two parts definite («الدين النصيحة») shows advice is the essence of the religion, not just a part. Silver: from their question, good manners in asking and eagerness to understand. Gold: advice to Allah benefits the servant himself. Diamond: silence is deception when you see harm you can wisely prevent.
